Library Space & Lockers Available:

We reserved the Conference Room (#355), May 31 - Aug. 2, for group workspace. You can leave reference materials, etc. on the table overnight. We intend this to provide a home base for those of you whose research doesn't have a required location; you as a group will need to decide how much chatter is acceptable.

We have also reserved the Galarza Room (#260), May 31 - June 24. After that, MSI will be using it during the mornings, but you'll be able to work in there in the afternoons. You won't be able to leave materials spread out there because of the class in the morning.

If it seems more appropriate, you may ask the library staff about reserving one of the small carrels or meeting rooms on a regular or occasional basis. These spaces are limited so inquire asap.

Finally, it is also possible to reserve a locker in the library where you can lock up books, laptops, etc. when you are not working. Talk to the library staff about the lockers as well.
